

ENVIRONMENTAL PATH

- Spend your senior year of high school earning college credits
- Take classes at CCRI related to your career interests. Courses include English Composition, Biology, and Two-Dimensional Design.
- Gain experience working in a paid internship
- Upon graduation: Work as a Horticultural/Landscape Apprentice while earning an Associate Degree

CAREER PATHWAYS

- Environmental Engineer
- Farm Technician / Manager
- Fine Gardener / Horticulturist
- Green Infrastructure Design & Construction
- Landscape Construction & Maintenance
- Landscape Designer or Architect
- Project Manager / Estimator
- Researcher in plant sciences, ecology
- Stone Masonry and more!

Degree Pathways

This program provides a foundation for many Associate and Bachelor degree programs including:

- Biological Sciences
- Environmental Science/ Engineering
- Landscape Architecture
- Natural Resources
- Plant Sciences
- Turf Management, and more.

For more information and to access to the application, visit <https://www.prepare-ri.org/apprenticeships> or reach out to Liz Lindgren at Elizabeth.lindgren@ride.ri.gov

INDUSTRY PARTNER

FREE FOR ELIGIBLE STUDENTS